SongWorks in Action: Playful Teaching, Vibrant Learning

SongWorks in Action 2017 is being designed to bring the idea of “Playful Teaching, Vibrant Learning” to life. Participants will experience learning strategies and teaching tools that are playful, musical, and alive with learning: ideas that can be taken directly into one’s classroom.

Principles and practices for teaching as discussed in Bennett and Bartholomew’s SongWorks I will undergird all aspects of this course. Those attending will consider the value of those principles and practices as well as how to apply them in their classrooms.

SongWorks in Action is open to anyone who loves to use song and playfulness in their classrooms. Early childhood educators, classroom teachers, K-12 music instructors all will find this course truly valuable in their teaching of children.

Since emphasis will be on active participation, instructors encourage attendees to come prepared to walk, skip, dance, laugh, play, and sing.

An added plus for summer 2017 will be that along with instructors Terolle Turnham and Marilyn Winter a number of our SongWorks Certified teachers plan to be on hand to enrich learning for all participants.

The course is limited to 30 students so don’t delay in making plans to attend.
