

Comments from Previous Course Attendees

- I learned so much that I could use in my classroom on day one when I returned to school in the fall.
- My music classes are now a little more magical, much more vibrant.
- Our music lessons buzz with student engagement.
- The SongWorks community is an organization in which the joy for the profession is contagious and inspiring.
- SongWorks in Action & SongWorks for Musicality courses have enriched my teaching, our school music curriculum, and conversations with my colleagues.
